Every course can be tailored and scheduled based on availability. All courses and dates remain flexible until they are officially reserved. It's first-come, first-served. Once a course is booked, the dates and details will be locked in, indicated in bold and highlighted in blue. If there's a discrepancy in pricing, it may be due to ongoing promotions. Please verify the pricing during your consultation or before securing your spot. All booking fees should be made in person unless alternative arrangements have been discussed. If you have any questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to contact us. We eagerly anticipate the opportunity to work with you.
